

Pamela Shoemaker

Commerce Twp, MI

In my school district, teachers use digital learning as a part of their instructional practices. This increasing demand creates a huge need for reliable high-speed internet. The E-rate program has helped over the years, but without an increase in funding, our students will be left without the tools that they need for learning in today's world. Please raise the E-rate funding to at least 5 billion per year. Thank you!